Song: FORGIVE ME, by Jeff Nelson & Jayme Thompson

About the song

"God have mercy on me, a sinner' are the words that help me experience the presence of God. Repentance revives both my sense of wonder and my hope. I hope this song will provide a starting over place every time it is sung."

These words from Forgive Me's co-author, Jayme Thompson, describe the genesis of the song. Based on Psalm 51, the song King David wrote crying out for mercy, Forgive Me can be a welcome addition to your fellowship's songs of repentance and forgiveness.

Among historic churches, confession and repentance are a regular part of every service. In contemporary worship, we must be careful that we don't disregard this important aspect of approaching God.

FORGIVE ME

Have mercy, have mercy
According to the depths fo your great love
Have mercy, have mercy
In spite of all the wrong that I have done
Look with kindness on my broken heart
Take away my sinfulness, oh God.

Forgive me, don't let me go
Wash me whiter than snow
Forgive me, make me steadfast and holy
I want to come back to you,
I want to come back to you,

Have mercy, have mercy
Pull me from the depths of where I've been
Have mercy, have mercy.
Breathe in me the breath of life again.
Look with kindness on my broken heart
Save me from my self again, oh God.
