Song: Thy Kingdom Come, by Gerrit Gustafson

About the Song

Gerrit Gustafson wrote Thy Kingdom Come on an early morning prayer walk. "As I was praying the Lord's Prayer, I became aware that I was praying the same words that saints from every generation since Christ had prayed. I thought about Jesus' disciples praying it - maybe in the upper room those days before Pentecost. New believers in Antioch, Philippi and throughout the Mediterranean world would learn this prayer and teach it to their children. I could almost hear the prayer echoing off the walls of the catacombs, or in the galleys of ships carrying early missionaries to Spain and Britain. Maybe it was part of the worship and prayer of the Moravians that a discouraged John Wesley overheard in the stormy Atlantic sea. I felt unified with the countless host of praying believers of across the centuries in many different lands.

As I began to sing the heart of the prayer -- Thy kingdom come -- it came out with an ancient flavor. I have purposely kept the Old English "Thy" instead of "Your" to fit the character of the melody. I do hope that as you sing this song, you'll feel a greater connection with God's eternal purposes that transcend this generation."
